About Crescent Girls' School Symphonic Band

Guided by their band motto "Et Bientot le Meilleur" (The Best is Yet to Be), the band members are constantly reminded to strive for excellence, ensuring they give their best whenever they make and share music. The band has participated and garnered numerous accolades at various music platforms, such as the Singapore Youth Festival and Singapore International Band Festival since its establishment in 1967. It has nurtured many generations of students through music education, and will continue to make music and seek to share the passion for music with the wider community.
