Going to Esplanade

- I am going to a place called Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay. It is also known as Esplanade.
- I will be watching a performance at Esplanade. The title of the performance is BURP.
- This is what Esplanade looks like.

Tickets

- Before I can watch the performance, I must buy a ticket to watch BURP.
- My grown-up will be buying the ticket.
- The ticket will tell me where I should go to watch the performance, the date of the performance, and the time.
- This is what an e-ticket looks like.

Theatre Studio

- This is the Theatre Studio. It is on Level 4.
- This is where the performance of BURP will take place.

BURP

- BURP takes place inside the Theatre Studio.
- The Theatre Studio is a special place where people perform stories to audiences like me.
- Watching BURP is like watching a movie but the people are right in front of me, performing the story in person.

BURP

- The story the actors will be performing is called BURP.
- BURP is about a man who loves to collect sounds in glass globes. He has a new assistant who helps him, and a funny character named BURP that makes big, funny noises that ripple through his whole body.

Before going into the Theatre Studio

- Before I go in to watch the performance, I can go to the washroom.
- To get to the washroom, I will go up the stairs and turn left.
- I can also go to the washroom during the performance.

- They will check my e-ticket. My grown-up can help me too.

Bag check

- If I have a bag, a security officer will check my bag.

Before I enter the Theatre Studio

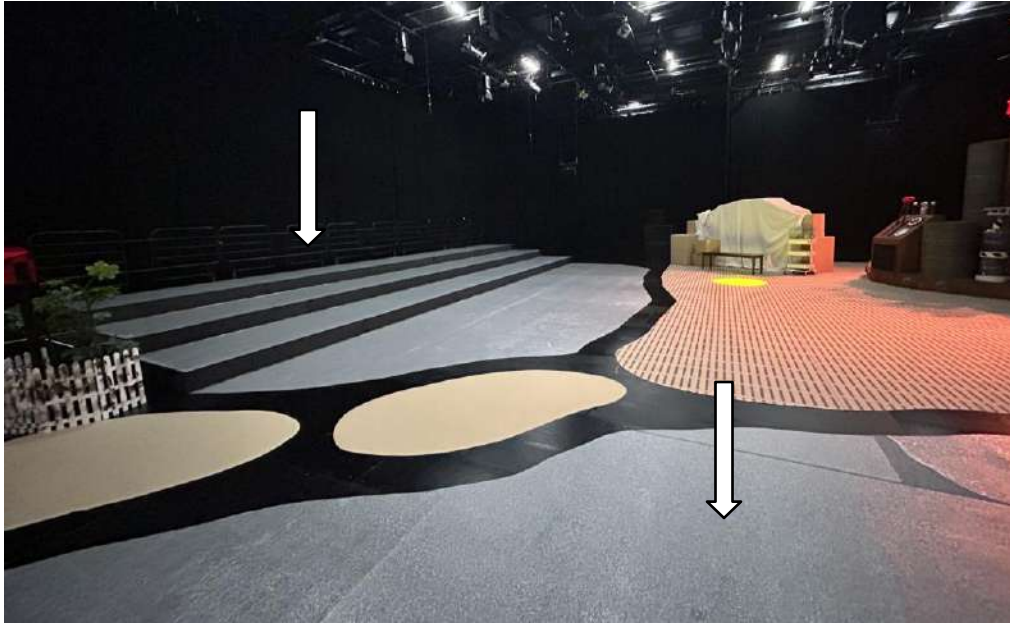

- An usher will hand me a piece of paper that looks just like this.
- Before the performance starts, I can tear the paper along the white dotted lines.

- An actor will tell me what to do with the piece of paper during the performance.

Ear protector

- This is an ear protector.
